Our Favorite Tea Quotes

"Bring me a cup of tea and the times." Queen Victoria's first command upon her Accession to the throne.

"The tea is ready, Dolores," Said Ferguson. "See that or Mistress has everything she can wish." From the Adventure of the Sussex Vampire, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

"I am in no way interested in immortality, but only in the taste of tea," Lu T'Ung

"A Man without a Mustache is like a cup of tea without sugar. Famous English Expression

"In the South, you can't marry a man until you know how his mama makes sweet tea." A quote from Sweet Tea and Jesus Shoes, A collection of Southern short Stories.

"As long as it's hot and wet and goes down the right way, that's all that matters." The Duchess of York

"Teaism is a cult founded on the adoration of the beautiful among the sordid facts of everyday existence. It inculcates purity and harmony, the mystery of mutual charity, the romanticism of the social order." Okakura, Book of Tea

"There are few hours in life more agreeable than the hour dedicated to the ceremony known as afternoon tea," Henry James(1843-1916)

"My dear, if you could give me a cup of tea to clear my muddle of a head I should understand your affairs" Charles Dickens (1812-1870)
